

Ngātiwai Iwi Education Environmental Scan

A report for
The New Zealand Ministry of Education
July 2011

Ngātiwai Unlimited Limited
P.O. Box 7153
Tikipunga, Whangarei

Copyright © Ngātiwai Unlimited Limited 2011

Table of Contents

SECTION 1:

- 1.1 Whakatakoto te Kaupapa – Introduction
- 1.2 Report outputs and structure
 - 1.2.1 The broader expanse of work Ngātiwai is engaged upon and achievements to date.
- 1.3 Measurement of Educational Success
- 1.4 Ngātiwai Iwi
 - 1.4.1 Tupuna from which Ngātiwai iwi descend
 - 1.4.2 Ngātiwai Iwi and Rohe
 - 1.4.3 The wider strategic vision and aspirations for Ngātiwai uri
 - 1.4.4 Governance and management structure of Ngātiwai
 - 1.4.5 Number and type of education institutions and the nature of the relationship between these institutions and Ngātiwai
 - 1.4.6 Numbers of Ngātiwai students in schools throughout New Zealand (MOE 2010).
 - 1.4.7 Māori students’ statistical projections
 - 1.4.8 An assessment from a Ngātiwai perspective of the current state of education in the Ngātiwai rohe
 - 1.4.8.1 Early Childhood Education Centres
 - 1.4.8.2 Compulsory Schooling
 - 1.4.8.3 Māori Medium Education
 - 1.4.8.4 Tertiary Education
- 1.5 Decile Ratings and Socio-Economic Profile
- 1.6 Background demographics
 - 1.6.1 Rural/Urban Population Demographics
 - 1.6.2 Age demographics
 - 1.6.3 Gender Demographics
 - 1.6.4 Educational Demographics
 - 1.6.5 Access to Education
 - 1.6.6 Income Demographics
 - 1.6.7 Employment Demographics
 - 1.6.8 Other demographic statistics
 - 1.6.9 Demographic summary
- 1.7 Considerations for education
- 1.8 Social issues that may be influenced by educational experiences
 - 1.8.1 Parenting ability
 - 1.8.2 Accessing Services
 - 1.8.3 Willingness to access programmes
- 1.9 Outline and describe the work completed by Ngātiwai including work supported by the Ministry but not necessarily limited to the organisation.

- 1.10 Key achievements by Ngātiwai with support from the Ministry and other agencies that has clearly contributed to the success of Ngātiwai uri.
- 1.11 Ngātiwai analysis of information and data and how this contributes to where the Ministry of Education and the Ngātiwai might focus their investment in terms of shared work together for the benefit of Ngātiwai learners and their whanau

SECTION 2:

Review of the Literature on Education for Māori Success

- 2.1 General
- 2.2 Background
- 2.3 Considerations for Māori Educational Success
- 2.4 Learning Environments for Māori Success

SECTION 3:

Methodology

- 3.1 Education Environmental Scan
- 3.2 Schools
 - 3.2.1 Survey
 - 3.2.2 Interviews with school personnel
 - 3.2.3 Data collation from public domain sources
- 3.3 Tertiary Institutions
- 3.4 Student /teacher /whanau voice
- 3.5 Data analysis

SECTION 4:

Data analysis and Results

- 4.1 Schools
 - 4.1.1 Self-review – Surveys and Interviews
 - 4.1.2 External review – The Education Review Office (ERO)
- 4.2 Academic Achievement
 - 4.2.1 Self-review
 - 4.2.2 External review - ERO
 - 4.2.3 Whanau perspective
- 4.3 Co-curricular Achievement
 - 4.3.1 Self-review
 - 4.3.2 External review - ERO
- 4.4 Relationships
 - 4.4.1 Teacher – Student Relationships
 - 4.4.1.1 Self-review
 - 4.4.1.2 External review – ERO
 - 4.4.1.3 Whanau Perspective

- 4.4.2 School and Whanau Relationships
 - 4.4.2.1 Self-review
 - 4.4.2.2 External review – ERO
 - 4.4.2.3 Whanau Perspective
- 4.5 Student engagement in learning
 - 4.5.1 Self-review
 - 4.5.2 External Review - ERO
 - 4.5.3 Whanau viewpoint
- 4.6 Curriculum
 - 4.6.1 Self-review
 - 4.6.2 External Review – ERO
 - 4.6.3 Whanau Perspective
- 4.7 Staff issues
 - 4.7.1 External Review – ERO
- 4.8 Boards of Trustees
 - 4.8.1 Self-review
 - 4.8.2 External Review - ERO
- 4.9 Student voice
- 4.10 Early Childhood Centres and Tertiary Institutions
 - 4.10.1 Early Childhood Education – ECE
 - 4.10.1.1 Whanau perspective.
 - 4.10.2 Tertiary Education
 - 4.10.2.1 Tertiary enrolments and completion rates
 - 4.10.2.2 Whanau Perspective
 - 4.10.2.3 Tertiary Education Strategy

SECTION 5:

Conclusions and Recommendations

- 5.1 Identifying Ngātiwai Students and Monitoring Achievement
- 5.2 Engaging Students in Learning
- 5.3 Curriculum Variation
- 5.4 Maori Medium Education
- 5.5 Gifted and Talented Education
- 5.6 Early Childhood Education
- 5.7 Tertiary Education

SECTION 6:

References